Student Update:

Director's Update:

- We are learning our first 12 sets right now, everyone is working very hard.
- Our new assistant director is doing amazing and his marching band background is really showing.
- Small in winds, big in percussion and big in guard 240 band students.
- Every student is being pushed to their maximum potential.
- Ensembles have been set (varsity,
- This year we will be playing our spirit show at the football games, we will not showcase our competition show until we are ready. A football game is not the best audience to listen to small parts and pieces to our show.
- Freshman induction ceremony-big big deal. Very traditional and parents are not invited. We have done it for 10 years and it is a bonding moment to all feel apart of the band. This Friday night August 9. Band members make a fun video that will be shown that night.
- The band sounds good!
- JV- your student has the option to be an equipment manager and have the opportunity to go to all the shows and competitions.
- The band fees include the WHOLE year including
- Dress Code- Church clothes and shower for freshman induction.
